

Ready to develop your mentoring skills?

Registrations are now open for the Supporting Coaches & Officials in Practice workshop (Alice Springs)

The Australian Sports Commission in partnership with the Department of People, Sport and Culture invite you to register for the free Supporting Coaches & Officials in Practice workshop.

- Development opportunity including eLearning course (2-hours) and face-to-face workshop (Friday evening and Sunday morning).
- Learn how to support the development of coaches & officials through on-the-job mentoring.
- Leverage coach/official-centred action planning to support higher levels of intrinsic motivation and accountability.

Workshop overview

- Identify and practice the skills needed for on-the-job effective coach mentoring, including observation and feedback session design, planning and delivery.
- Encourage coach/official-centred action planning to help coaches/officials monitor their progress and reset goals as necessary.
- Practice the GRIP and GROW models for reflective feedback conversations

Target

This development opportunity is relevant to:

- Existing mentors, coaches or developers of coaches/officials' and experienced coaches/officials wishing to start mentoring others.
- Experienced coaches wishing to start mentoring others
- Club//Association Coaching Coordinators
- Local Government Sport and Recreation Officers

Date and venue

Friday 12 June 2026
5.30pm to 8.30pm

Sunday 14 June 2026
9am to 1pm

Venue: TBC

Due to the highly practical nature of the session, the face-to-face workshop will not have a virtual attendance option. Note the session is split over 2 days

To register go to <https://forms.office.com/r/j0sdc8GAVH>

Australian Government
Australian Sports Commission

