

Ready to develop your mentoring skills?

Registrations are now open for the Supporting Coaches & Officials in Practice workshop (Darwin)

The Australian Sports Commission in partnership with the Department of People, Sport and Culture invite you to register for the free Supporting Coaches & Officials in Practice workshop.

- Development opportunity including eLearning course (2-hours) and face-to-face workshop (2 evening sessions 3 hours per session).
- Learn how to support the development of coaches & officials through on-the-job mentoring.
- Leverage coach/official-centred action planning to support higher levels of intrinsic motivation and accountability.

Workshop overview

- Identify and practice the skills needed for on-the-job effective coach mentoring, including observation and feedback session design, planning and delivery.
- Encourage coach/official-centred action planning to help coaches/officials monitor their progress and reset goals as necessary.
- Practice the GRIP and GROW models for reflective feedback conversations.

Target

This development opportunity is relevant to:

- Existing mentors, coaches or developers of coaches/officials' and experienced coaches/officials wishing to start mentoring others.
- Experienced coaches wishing to start mentoring others
- Peak Sporting Body training managers
- Peak Sporting Body club development officers
- Local Government Sport and Recreation Officers

Date and venue

Wednesday 10 June 2026
Thursday 11 June 2026

5.30pm to 8.30pm

Motorsports House,
Hidden Valley Raceway

Due to the highly practical nature of the session, the face-to-face workshop will not have a virtual attendance option.

To register go to <https://forms.office.com/r/yuzCJzYAei>

Australian Government
Australian Sports Commission

