

Records Disposal Freeze for records relating to Child Protection and Youth Detention Systems in the Northern Territory

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to notify public sector organisations, which may be in possession of records relevant to the scope of the Royal Commission into the Child Protection and Youth Detention Systems of the NT (Royal Commission), that a disposal freeze has been placed on records created on or after 1 August 2006 which may be required for the inquiries of the Royal Commission or related legal actions or investigations.

Background

On 28 July 2016, the Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull announced the establishment of a joint Commonwealth/Northern Territory Royal Commission into Child Protection and Youth Detention Systems of the Northern Territory. Letters Patent were issued on 1 August 2016 appointing the Royal Commission. The final report of the Royal Commission was tabled on 17 November 2017.

The aim of the disposal freeze is to avoid the risk of losing crucial evidence for the Royal Commission or related legal actions.

Authority

The Archives Service (Library & Archives NT) and the Records Service (Department of Corporate and Digital Development) issue this disposal freeze in accordance with Section 136B of the Information Act 2002 (NT). Destruction of records covered by a disposal freeze is considered illegal disposal under Section 145 of the Information Act.

The disposal of records not covered by a disposal schedule is an offence under Section 145 of the Information Act.

Agencies affected

The disposal freeze applies to all public sector organisations which may be in possession of records relating to the scope of the Royal Commission, in particular:

- Attorney-General's Department;
- Northern Territory Police Force;
- Department of Children and Families
- Department of Corrections

- Department of Health
- Department of Corporate and Digital Development
- Department of the Chief Minister and Cabinet
- Department of Infrastructure and Logistics
- Department of Treasury and Finance
- Office of the Commissioner for Public Employment
- Ombudsman's Office
- Department of Housing, Local Government and Community Development
- Department of People, Sport and Culture

Records affected

The disposal freeze covers the following records:

- Records relating to child protection including case files relating to allegations or incidents
- Records relating to the treatment of children for injuries received whilst in the care, however it may be described, of the Northern Territory of Australia
- Records relating to investigations into incidents relating to children in the care, however it may be described, of the Northern Territory of Australia
- Records relating to the management and staffing of youth detention centres or facilities administered by the Northern Territory of Australia
- Records relating to children in the custody of the Northern Territory of Australia
- Records relating to juvenile justice systems
- Records relating to policies and procedures concerning the management of processes in NT public sector organisations which relate to the custody of children and child protection

Schedule A details the categories of records subject to the records disposal freeze. Schedule B provides a list of disposal schedules likely affected by the disposal freeze.

The content of the freeze relates to records during the period since the commencement of the Youth Justice Act 2005 on 1 August 2006.

Records of the predecessors of the relevant agencies such as the Department of Justice (2001-2012) and Department of Health and Families (2008-2011) will also be included within this scope.

A disposal freeze applies to records in all formats, including in email, business management systems and network drives.

Duration

This disposal freeze was initially issued for the period 1 August 2016-30 June 2017. The disposal freeze was extended until 30 June 2018 pending the conclusion of the Royal Commission. The final report of the Royal Commission was tabled on 17 November 2017. Reviews of the requirement for the continuation of the disposal freeze have been undertaken at regular intervals and the disposal freeze was extended due to ongoing legal action.

A further review of the requirement for the continuation of the disposal freeze was undertaken in January 2025 and the freeze has been extended to ongoing legal action the disposal freeze has been extended until 31 December 2030.

A review of the requirement for the continuation of the disposal freeze will be undertaken prior to 31 December 2030. Public sector organisations will be notified by the Records Service if a further extension of the disposal freeze is authorised or if it will cease.

Action Required

Public sector organisations should:

1. Notify all staff and other relevant parties (including third party service providers) responsible for the disposal of public records that a disposal freeze has been issued.
2. Withhold from destruction any records within the scope of the records disposal freeze.
3. Retain the records identified in the disposal freeze for the duration of the freeze or until further notice.

The preparation for sentencing of records affected by the disposal freeze can continue. However, the records must be set aside and retained for the period of the disposal freeze. The records should be retained by the organisation; they will not be accepted for transfer to the Archives Service. Organisations have the option either to identify and set aside the particular records covered by the freeze, or to implement a broader freeze on all records likely to contain relevant material.

Impact

The costs relating to the management and storage of an agency's temporary records covered by a records disposal freeze is the responsibility of the public sector organisation.
